EXHORTATION

Praise the Lord! Haleluyah! This topic sounds strange but in fact real. Every Christian in Africa, the Caribbean's or of African descendant must take this message serious. In Job 3:1 – 13 Job lamented thus: “After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth. And Job spoke and said: May the day perish on which I was born, And the night in which it was said, A male child is conceived. May God above not seek it, Nor the light shine upon it. May darkness and the shadow of death claim it; May a cloud settle on it; May the darkness of the day terrify it. As for that night, may darkness seize it; May it not rejoice among the days of the year; May it not come into the number of the months, Oh, may that night be barren; may no joyful shout come into it! May they curse it who curse the day, Those who are ready to arouse Lamentation, May the stars of its morning be dark; May it look for light, but have none, And not see the dawning of the day; Because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, Nor hide sorrow from my eyes. Why did I not die at birth? Why did I not perish when I came from the womb? Why did the knees receive me? Oh! Why the breasts, that I should nurse? For now I would have lain still and been quiet, I would have been asleep, then I would have been at rest”

From the above scriptures, we discover that Job when he was afflicted started raining curses on his birth regretting why he did not die in the womb before he came. (v.11) He mentioned about the constellation of stars (the heavelies v.9) Utterances (v.7) the day and night (v.3 – 6) the breasts of his mother (v.12) etc.

When Jacob was about dying in Gen. 49, he said unto Joseph in v.25 “Even by the God of your father who shall help you and by the Almighty who shall bless you with blessings of Heaven above; blessings of the deep that lieth under; blessings of the breasts and the womb”

Beloved there are some sweet influences that can come upon our lives from our parents especially mothers, if heartily felt prayers are said on us in the name of Jesus. This is to equally infer that many things can go wrong with us if curses are said by them.

2 Cor. 5:17 -19 “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation”.

The word of reconciliation must be pronounced on our unknown past because of our newness in Christ in order for us to really enjoy all things that are now newly found in Christ. That is what is called THE MINISTRY OF RECONCILIATION. Many Christians are frustrated today because of many ungodly transactions that took place right from the womb which had been left undealt with the word of God.

FACTS:

1. Many people were born in idolatrous family where their pregnancies were heavily insured through occultic means. Such people must release the blood of Jesus upon their birth and confidently declare of their faith in Jesus Christ for reconciliation.
2. Some people were rejected with nasty statements by their parents at birth as a result of a sex difference from their parental expectations. These people will be negatively affected as words have power laden effects.
3. Some people's pregnancies generated controversies as a result doubts about the paternity of the child. Perhaps the woman was promiscuous. Such people born under that condition must employ the word of God to straighten their distorted birth.
4. Some people's placenta (especially in Africa) will be preserved through occultism, buried in strange places. Such people must use the weapon of the word of God to destroy negative effects of such acts upon their lives. (Ezek. 16:1 – 12)
5. We have heard cases of people who are terrible afflicted in life until the Holy Spirit revealed that:
 - The first hands that touched them at birth were polluted.
 - The first water used to bathe them sponsored affliction from birth.
 - The type of naming ceremony/materials/and the conductor of the occasion terribly dropped problems into their lives.
 - The place of delivery was corrupted environment.
 - Being born in a polygamous set up has made many to start lives on the negative.
 - Many people lived and grew up in houses and environment that punctured their destinies and brought about leakages in their goodness.
 - Many people are victims of inherited family traits, evil flow and pattern from childhood, seriously monitored by the strongmen of their homes.

Beloved, you will agree with me that to fulfill our sonship and fully enjoy our inheritances in Jesus Christ, we need to pray using the weapon of the blood of Jesus to reconcile our unknown distorted birth to confirm to the image of Christ and begin to enjoy the Royal blood from the King of Glory who has adopted us as joint heirs with our Lord Jesus Christ. Remember Prov. 11:9b. “But through knowledge shall the just be delivered”
